

RCET ARTS FESTIVAL- 2015 (DHANAK)

ROYAL ARTS FEST 2015- DHANAK, a joint venture by Management, Authorities, Faculty members and students of RCET , came to be true on 13th and 15th of March 2015 in the vibrantly beautiful campus of RECT and the offstage events were conducted on 4th and 5th of March Various events related to Arts, Literature, Music and Dance woke up the remembrance of the glorious culture of our nation- Unity in Diversity. The events reflected Heritage, Custom and Culture evolved through the civilization of our country.

The competitions were held among the departments. There were total of 9 groups including S1S2 two groups ,M-Tech and 6 departments. When the young talented artists competed in a healthy and friendly manner, the event turned out to be an awesome and colorful moment in the history of RCET.

The event was inaugurated by famous poet Sri. Murukan Kattakada and his motivating words enlightened the crowd in the right way. Sri.Murukan Katakada released the collection of poems "Peythozhiyathe" of late M-tech student Aswathi Sidhan by giving that to her parents.

Preceding the inaugural ceremony, the On - Stage events were held at 5 various stages inside our campus.

Events were judged by well known and experienced personalities in respective fields. It was remarkable that for every event there was whole - hearted coordination between students and Staff members in RCET. The overall championship awarded to ECE dept.

