

This report outlines the online and offline SIP sessions organized by IQAC & UHV Cell in association with SSSDF & the Department of Applied Sciences & Humanities. The online SIP started on 17th November 2021 was wound up on 20th November 2021. The main speakers of the online session were Dr. Dineshan Koovakkai (Freelance information professional and academic counselor, Assistant Librarian Head Technical Division (Retd) CHMK Library, University of Calicut.), Mr. Shoukath Sahajotsu, (Writer, Orator, Traveller, and Kerala Sahitya Academy Award Recipient), Dr. Suvarna Nalapat (Founder and managing trustee of Dr. Suvarna Nalapat trust for research and education, philosophy, poet, researcher, pantologist, and educator) and Col Comdt Prof Dr. Rajendra Kumar Anayath (Vice-Chancellor, DCRUST (Deendandhu Chhotu Ram University of Science and Technology), Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidhyalaya, Khanpur Kalan, Sonapat, Haryana. The offline SIP was held in the month of November as 'Genesis 2021' from 22-11-2021 to 27-11-2021. The main objective of these sessions was to cultivate a developing child's physical, emotional, moral, psychological, and spiritual attributes. For that, classes related to communicative development, physical education, creative practices and social awareness were organized successfully.